

Celebrating 75 years as the Constable Hall Association!

How can your business partner with Constable Hall?

Sponsorship Opportunities!

With over 3,000 visitors every season, supporting Constable Hall is a great way to advertise your business and show your customers that you care about your community, history and education. This historic house museum built in 1819 has history connected to the very foundation of America, our region and culture, and was the inspiration for the classic Christmas poem 'Twas The Night Before Christmas, making the Hall a must-see family destination for history and cultural events.

All sponsorship levels have different benefits and can be tied to the many events at the Hall.

NATIVE AMERICAN APPRECIATION MONTH

Sponsor $1500

For the entire month of August the Hall celebrates the relationship the Constable family enjoyed with Native peoples of the region. Your sponsorship will help bring the following events to the Hall:

August 4th- Lacrosse Shoot-out Lacrosse players from the Oneida Nation will be joining us for “Skills and Drills”! They will start off with a short lecture on the history of lacrosse, an overview of the game, and a quick demonstration. Then they will work with participants on different skills and drills. People of all ages (and not just lacrosse players) are welcome to the Hall for this wonderful event. We will also have our usual shootout at this time.

August 11th-Jessica Farmer, Cultural Programs Coordinator at the Oneida Indian Nation Cultural Center will give a talk and bring Native artifacts to share and discuss. Jessica is a storyteller, artist and cultural knowledge gatherer.

August 18th-Chris Thomas (Onondaga) and his Smoke Dancers provide an entertaining and educational Haudenosaunee social dance exhibition. Social dances, such as the round dance, rabbit dance, old moccasin dance and canoe or fishing dance, are for the enjoyment of all people. Chris serves as both the MC and singer, leading the dancers in their skillful and often fast-paced dances that honor the traditions and culture of the Haudenosaunee.
